

BRYAN INDORSES BREWER'S NAME, GETS INTO TROUBLE

Temperance Societies Flood
Secretary, Protesting Appointment of Vopica.

By Samuel M. Williams.
(Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 18.—Secretary of State Bryan is in fresh trouble. The sincerity of his peace policy is being questioned. Devout friends and supporters in temperance societies are sending him letters and telegrams expressing surprise on account of reports that he is about to have a brewer appointed to high office. They inquire how he can lend himself to such an endorsement of the liquor interests in view of his temperance record and especially his recent refusal to serve anything stronger than grape juice at diplomatic dinners and receptions.

Charles Vopica is the president of a large brewery in Chicago. He has been strongly indorsed for appointment as Minister to the Balkan States and it is understood that the nomination is about to be sent to the Senate by President Wilson on Mr. Bryan's recommendation.

The Anti-Saloon League of Illinois has inaugurated a campaign of protest and has sent telegrams to the league in other States, urging that they join in systematic opposition to the impending appointment. National Headquarters of the league in Washington has taken up the case and is communicating with a number of other temperance societies to enlist them in the cause. The National Interchurch Temperance Federation, having several million members, and the Good Templars are giving attention to the request, and a tremendous temperance storm is brewing about the head of the Secretary of State.

"PAINS AND SURPRISES" THE TEMPERANCE WORKERS.
Rev. E. C. Dinwiddie, legislative secretary of the Anti-Saloon League, with headquarters in Washington, said: "I have received communications from the league in Chicago stating their protest against Mr. Vopica, and it would seem to be an appointment against which all friends of temperance and foes of the liquor traffic should join in emphatic protest. Mr. Vopica may be well qualified for diplomatic service, but interests he represents and the traffic in which he is engaged are such that the Christian temperance people of America cannot afford to allow such a man to be sent to foreign countries as representing the moral standards of this nation. It is not the individual we fight, but that for which he stands.

"It would seem inconsistent that Secretary Bryan, after all his valiant championship of the temperance cause, should even intermediately give countenance to the liquor traffic by approving such an appointment. It pains and surprises church people and temperance workers that the nomination of Mr. Vopica is sent to the Senate we shall certainly make as vigorous a fight as we can against his confirmation."

"EXCELLENT TYPE OF CITIZEN," SAYS LEWIS.

Senator James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois said:
"Mr. Vopica has been very strongly indorsed for appointment as Minister to the Balkan states and his friends expect the nomination to be sent in soon. He is, I understand, president of a company owning one of the large breweries

Climate Failed; Medicine Effective

Rest, fresh air and well-cooked, nourishing food do help many persons suffering with Lung Trouble. But in many cases the disease is only temporarily "arrested," and something more is needed. Eckman's Alternative is a medicine for Throat and Lung Troubles and has brought about many complete recoveries—in many cases where the surroundings were not ideal. Judging by the many reports of recovery received, we believe it should be used in every case of Lung Trouble. A remarkable case follows:

"My Dear Sir: Through your instrumentality I have been saved from a premature grave. On December 14, 1904, I was taken with Typhoid Pneumonia, which developed into Consumption. In February, 1905, I went to Fort Worth, Texas, and later to Canyon City, Colorado. After being there two weeks my physician informed me that my case was hopeless. Three weeks later I returned home, weighing 125 pounds, the doctor having given me no assurance of reaching there alive. On July 14, 1906, I began taking Eckman's wonderful remedy for Consumption. To-day I weigh 155 pounds, I am stout and well and do my day's work about my grain elevator."

(Affidavit) ARTHUR WEBB.
"Above abbreviated: more on request." Eckman's Alternative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious in cases of severe Throat and Lung troubles. Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Whooping Cough, Tuberculosis, the system. Does not contain narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. For sale by E. C. Dinwiddie, legislative secretary of the Anti-Saloon League, Philadelphia, Pa., or by local druggists and recoveries and additional evidence.

RISKS LIFE TO SAVE CHILD IN TRAIN'S PATH ON NARROW TRESTLE

Hero Medal Urged for Fisherman Who Raced With Engine to Reach Lad.

George Strickland, an employee of the Long Island Railroad, is being mentioned to-day for a hero medal as a result of his courageous act in rescuing five-year-old James Dougherty from the trestle that spans Jamaica Bay near the Broad Channel station of the Far Rockaway division of the railroad.

Hundreds of passengers waiting for a train yesterday saw a white object on the trestle 200 yards from the station. They knew an electric train was coming toward the Rockaways and began to bawll the fate of the "little white dog"—for they all thought the speck on the trestle was a dog.

Strickland had been fishing from the trestle to the west of the station and on straightening up saw the child's danger. Dropping his line he jerked a red cloth from his pocket and rushed for the white spot, waving the cloth as a danger signal to the onrushing train.

Strickland ran swiftly over the open trestle work. The hum of the train could be heard, but Strickland won the race. He reached the boy when the train was only one hundred feet away, and, sweeping him up into his arms, jumped on the wooden covering of the third rail and stood away there as the train rushed by. Once he almost lost his balance and fell.

The train stopped fifty yards beyond, and the passengers joined in the cheering as Strickland brought the boy to the platform. The youngster proved to be the son of Peter Dougherty of Corona, who with his wife is visiting at
